MORE BRIBERY.

Republicans Still Handling Their Boodle Fund.

A Second Exposure May be Made at Frankfort—Contest Cases
Ready For Action.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 22.—Another bribery exposure is not unlikely at Frankfort in a few days. A prominent Democratic politician is alleged to have offered a Democratic Representative $2,500 payable in weekly installments, to vote with the Republicans on all partisan questions before the House. An installment of $750 is said to have been paid, the Representative having kept a fellow-legislator posted on all phases of the transaction. The grand jury of Franklin county will investigate the case.

Since the alleged deal yesterday afternoon several Republicans and Brown men who are on the inside of affairs have been boasting that Senator Goebel could not get enough votes to win, and that a great change had come over the situation recently.

If a quorum of Democrats is present, the contest of McKinney (Democrat) against Taylor (Republican) may be brought up in the House, and, if so, he is almost certain to be seated, probably by a unanimous Democratic vote, as he is said to have a fine case.

In fact, one of the most prominent and influential Republican leaders in Kentucky told the Courier-Journal correspondent to-day that the Republican members would vote to unseat Representative Taylor, as he was clearly ineligible, being a postmaster. The law on the subject is plain, and the Republicans admit it. Two Republican Representatives have said that if their understanding of the case was correct they would vote to seat McKinney.

The Van Meter-Berry contest from Fayette county will also be brought up to-morrow or Tuesday. The contestant is a Democrat, and his is said to be a strong case.

Mr. Gorin 'Lay' Contest.

Campbellsville, Ky., Jan. 21.—It is said by friends of S. T. Gorin, the defeated Democratic candidate for Representative in this district, that R. R. Benningfield, Republican, who was elected, was in reality ineligible, being at the time postmaster at Elk Horn.

WANT $1,000, EACH.

Two Damage Suits Filed—False Arrest Alleged.

J. S. Ezell and R. R. Roberts have filed suits against T. H. Joiner for $1,000 damages each, alleging false arrest.

The suits grow out of the alleged false arrest of plaintiffs at the defendant's instance on Dec. 19. Ezell says in his petition that he raised a crop of tobacco on shares with defendant in 1899. Under the contract he claimed that he had a right to deliver the crop upon the market and in pursuance of this right on December 17 he employed one R. E. Roberts to haul it to Clarksville where it was sold.

Plaintiff's say the defendant telephoned to Clarksville procuring their arrest on the false charge of stealing the tobacco.

All of the parties live near Lafayette and are well known farmers. The cases will be tried at the spring term of Christian Circuit Court, which convenes the last week in February for a six weeks' session.

Death of Dr. Goslee.

Louisville, Jan. 20.—Dr. Deven E. Goslee, superintendent of the Central Lunatic Asylum, died at 10:35 o'clock last night of heart failure. Like his predecessor, Dr. Hugh McNary, he died in office.

LINE OF COLSON'S DEFENSE

It Will Be That He Had to Do the Shooting.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 22.—As murder indictments do not admit of bail, it is not probable that Attorneys James Andrew Scott and T. L. Edelen will make any motion for bail at all for Colson, but will ask for a speedy examination trial as soon as their client's arm is far enough healed to admit of his being out.

The line of defense they will make is pretty clear. They will claim that the question as to who fired the first shot is immaterial; they will try to prove that Scott was a deadly enemy of Colson and that he advanced upon their client in a threatening manner on that fateful Tuesday afternoon.

They will claim that it was a question of kill or be killed, in which Colson saved himself. As for Demaree, they will try to prove that Scott used him as a shield, in the meantime firing at Colson any trying to kill him. They will point out that as Colson fired, Scott had Demaree in front of him.

It is understood that Col. Colson's friends will make an application for trial before Judge Cantrill. The accused may possibly be put on the stand as a witness if he can bear the strain in his weakened condition and if his attorneys think best. They will have no trouble in getting bondsmen for any amount.

COLSON'S WOUND IS BETTER.

No Loss of the Arm appears Imminent, Now.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 20.—The condition of Col. Colson was greatly improved today and his suffering is much less than on yesterday. Dr. Hume, who is attending him, says there is no danger of the loss of the wounded arm, though it will yet give him some trouble. Ex-Congressman J. G. Fitzpatrick, of the tenth district, spent last night with the prisoner. Ex-Congressman John C. Houck and Attorney General A. F. Mynatt, of Tennessee, have tendered their professional services to Col. D. G. Colson.

Capt. Ben. Golden's condition underwent a decided change for the better yesterday. After a restless night he awoke feeling stronger than at any time since the tragedy. It is believed that his recovery will be rapid.

Dr. Roberts thinks there is no immediate necessity of removing the bullet and he prefers allowing the soreness of the wound to disappear to the greatest extent possible.

ADVANCE MOVMENT.

British Seem to Have Waked
Up Again.

Buller and Warren Have Both Crossed Tugela River and Are Making Progress.

London, Jan. 22.—Brief dispatches from Gen. Buller to the War office last night stated that the battle of Saturday, in which Gen. Warren succeeded in advancing three miles, was resumed Sunday morning and kept up all day. Further advances covering two miles were made by Gen. Warren's forces, and three Boer positions were taken after hard fighting up hill. No estimate of the loss of life was given; the last brief dispatch closing with the statement that the British were making satisfactory progress. Reports from Mafeking are that bombardment of the town is kept up, but that particularly little damage has been done. Col. Plumer is steadily advancing with his force toward the city.

H. G. PETRIE DEAD.

Veteran Lawyer, Banker and Politician Succumbs to the Infirmities of Age.

Elkton, Ky., Jan. 21.—Judge H. G. Petrie, the veteran citizen, banker and lawyer, died at his home in this city last night, having reached nearly eighty years. He had been in feeble health for more than a year, but was confined to his home and bed only a few days. There was no better known or better beloved citizen in the county than he, and his death is a public calamity. Judge Petrie was born, reared and lived his life out in this community and was always noted for his charity and noble public spirit. In politics he was a Republican, but was esteemed by all, irrespective of political predilections. He was elected to two offices only, State Senator and member of the Constitutional Convention. He was known among his people as the grand old man, and leaves a handsome estate. The funeral was conducted from the Presbyterian church this afternoon, at which nearly every family in this entire city was represented.

Mr. Harrison was about 67 years of age and had long been a prominent leader in the Republican party. At one time he made an unsuccessful contest for appointment as postmaster in this city.

Until a year or two ago he conducted the Harrison House, a boarding house on East Seventh street. He was a Federal soldier during the Civil war. He was by trade a carpenter and contractor, but for many years was in the mercantile business.

His wife, who was Miss Boales, and five children survive him. There are three sons, Houston, Eugene and Sam, and two daughters Mrs. Augusta Shaw and Miss Willie Harrison.

Deceased was a member of the Methodist church. The funeral service was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment in the cemetery.

EXHAUSTION THE CAUSE.

Popular Merchant Passes Away
in Prime of Life.

Mr. Will Vanhooser, a member of the firm of Vanhooser & Myers, Virginia street merchants, died at his home in the Hord Block, Thursday night. He had been a sufferer from rheumatism for several years and a boil or abscess formed on one of his hips. The bursting of the swelling caused great loss of blood and death was caused from exhaustion.

Mr. Vanhooser was a native of this county, having been reared in the North-eastern part of the county. He moved to this city about three years ago and had since been engaged in the grocery business. He was a very popular business man and had succeeded in building up a good trade. He was thirty-five years of age and leaves a widow and two small children, besides a large circle of friends to mourn their loss.

The interment took place in the Courtney burying ground, three miles from the city, Saturday.

DIED IN NASHVILLE.

Real Estate Deals—Smallpox—
Other Trenton Items.

Trenton, Ky., Jan. 22.—Mr. Webb C. Garth, a prominent farmer and stock dealer of this place, died at an early hour this morning at a Nashville infirmary, where he had been under treatment for two months. His remains will arrive here today and will be interred by the side of those of his wife, who dropped dead in Nashville last Wednesday, while on a visit to him.

Two cases of small pox are reported near here. The patient at this place is about well.

Trenton real estate is on a boom in the west end. Mr. Joe Metz, though his agent, Mr. M. M. Graves has purchased a lot, paying the handsome sum of $600 cash for same. Early in the spring he will build a $5,000 residence. 'Tis said he will not be a bachelor much longer.

Mr. Alex. McElwain has traded his house and lot to M. M. Graves for the Baptist parsonage, near Trenton, and will move to same about March 1.

ASK YOUR DOCTOR!

Ask your physician this question, "What is the one great remedy for consumption?" He will answer, "Cod-liver oil." Nine out of ten will answer the same way.

Yet when persons have consumption they loathe all fatty foods, yet fat is necessary for their recovery and they cannot take plain cod-liver oil. The plain oil disturbs the stomach and takes away the appetite. The disagreeable fishy odor and taste make it almost unendurable. What is to be done?

This question was answered when we first made of Cod-Liver Oil with Hypophosphites. Although that was nearly twenty-five years ago, yet it stands alone to-day the one great remedy for all affections of the throat and lungs.

The bad taste and odor have been taken away, the oil itself has been partly digested, and the most sensitive stomach objects to it rarely. Not one in ten can take and digest the plain oil. Nine out of ten can take SCOTT'S EMULSION and digest it. That's why it cures so many cases of early consumption. Even in advanced cases it brings comfort and greatly prolongs life.

See and get it at all druggists.
